

SCB New 2007 Salary Survey & Cost of Living - Launching Event

The Syrian Consulting Bureau would like to invite you to attend the launching of our SCB Salary Survey 2007 and Cost of Living 2007 programs on January 13th, 2008 at 18:00, at the Carlton Mijana Hall. The event will entail a presentation by Ms. Tala Hboubati, introducing the scope, methodology, and benefits of each program.

With the Syrian economy growing at a rapid pace, the increase in cost of living, the growing demand for skilled staff and the limited supply of available qualifications, a significant upward pressure on compensation has been put on the private sector. Headhunting is becoming a trend in the market, private firms are having difficulty retaining employees and loyalty to firms is no longer present.

The new SCB Salary Survey 2007 covers 23 job positions in leading companies in Syria and will enable you benchmark with the market the job positions in your firm. Basic salaries (Minimum, Average, Maximum) of the evaluated job positions is given by the market pay policy lines identified by the survey.

The new SCB Cost of Living 2007 consists of a Consumer Price (Cost of Living) Index of a typical upper middle income family in the Damascus area. It includes monthly prices of different categories of expenditure, as identified by the Expenditure Pattern Survey conducted by SCB in 2007. The Index is given on a quarterly, semi-annually and annual basis.
